

You're invited!

The CGSC Foundation's Simons Center invites you to the first of three virtual presentations in the Cold War Symposium series

Tuesday, December 14, 2021 • 11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m.

The purpose of the Cold War Symposium is to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the end of the Cold War, to promote scholarship, and to recognize the contributions of those who participated in that global struggle, especially the United States and its allies in NATO. The symposium kicked off with an overview presentation on Nov. 9 and is being followed up with virtual presentations in a three-part series.

This first virtual presentation is Part 1: Setting the Stage for the End of the Cold War. The presenters are:

- Tim Riley, Director and Chief Curator, America's National Churchill Museum, Fulton, Mo.
Subject: Churchill's Iron Curtain Speech
- Col. (Ret.) Jon House, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus, Department of Military History, CGSC
Subject: Cold War Overview
- Robert Davis, Ph.D., Director, Goodpaster Scholars, School of Advanced Military Studies, CGSC
Subject: Conditions Leading to the Decline of the Soviet Union

The Cold War Symposium virtual presentations are presented as Arter-Rowland National Security Forum events. The Arter-Rowland National Security Forum is an exclusive professional information sharing and networking event exclusively for select invitees of the CGSC Foundation and its Simons Center and the Kansas City Chapter of the Association of the United States Army (KCAUSA), the co-hosts of the Forum.

Attendance is free. Virtual seating is limited so please register soon!
